A very short (2 hours playtime) story in a special and beautiful world, in a colorful underwater empire. Really-really very spectacular! You can float, swim freely around, but you cant die, you can just watch the plants, the colorful fish. Its calm and peaceful. Of course you have a mission: activating crystals to free a little green ghost, who will show the way to the next area. To activate those crystals it is necessary for your the hero (a little purple ghost) to possess fish, what swim around. Different fish have different skills: one brings lightness to the dark cave areas, other eats sea urchin and thus open up the cave entrances, another again is strong and can swim against the currents, etc..
